The Society shall consist of Resident, Corresponding and Honorary members.

Resident members alone shall be required to contribute to the funds of the Society.

ART. II. Each resident member shall pay to the Treasurer an admission fee of ten dollars for the general purposes of the Society.

If he shall neglect to pay his fee for one year after being notified of his election, his election shall be void.

The person so chosen shall be notified immediately by the Corresponding Secretary of his election, and be furnished with an attested copy of this article; and the Treasurer shall, as cases may occur, report to the Society the names of those persons who have neglected to pay their admission fee.

ART. III. Resident members shall be citizens of Maine, and their number shall not exceed one hundred. Corresponding members shall be elected from among persons who are not citizens of the State. When a resident member ceases to be a citizen of the State, his membership shall cease. Honorary members may be residents or non-residents of the State.

ART. IV. A book shall be kept by the Recording Secretary, in which any resident member of the Society may enter the name of any person, whom he may regard as suitable to be nominated as a resident or corresponding member; which nomination is not to be made known abroad, but no nomination shall be made to the Society except by report of the Standing Committee.

Persons may be nominated at any regular meeting of the Society, but no action shall be taken thereon except at the annual meeting.

ART. V. All members shall be elected by ballot, but no election shall be valid unless there be fifteen members present, nor unless three-fourths of all the members present shall have voted affirmatively.

Resident members only shall be entitled to vote at the meetings of the Society.

ART. VI. Any resident member who shall fail to attend three successive annual meetings, and shall also fail to attend, within that period, the other meetings of the Society, or who shall fail to comply with its requirements in respect to its publications, for the term of six months after he shall have been notified thereof, shall forfeit his membership, unless he shall send to the President, within the period embraced by said annual meetings, such excuse as shall be satisfactory to the Society. Provided, that the Society, at any annual meeting, may, in proper case, suspend the action of this rule. Persons who have forfeited their membership may be placed on a list of retired members, and shall have the right to attend the meetings and take part in the discussions, but without the right to vote.

CHAPTER II—OF MEETINGS.

The meetings of the Society shall be as follows:

ART. I. The annual meeting of the Society shall be held in Brunswick during Commencement week, at such time and place as the Standing Committee may appoint. At this meeting the officers of the Society, for the ensuing year, shall be chosen, and all business of the Society transacted. This meeting may be adjourned from day to day, but not for a longer period.

ART. II. For the purpose of receiving and reading papers, and the hearing of such addresses as come within the purview of the Society, meetings may be held in such places and at such times as the Standing Committee may direct.

ART. III. At all meetings, as soon as the President has taken the chair, the record of the preceding meeting shall be read, after which, at special meetings, the business for which the meeting was called shall be transacted; and at the regular meetings the order of business shall be as follows, viz:

1st. The Librarian and Cabinet Keeper shall make a detailed report of whatever has been received by them since the last meeting.

2d. The Corresponding Secretary shall read any communications he may have received.

4th. The Standing Committee shall be called upon to report its doings since the last meeting.

5th. Reports from other committees shall be called for, after which, members shall be called on to submit any propositions or communications on the objects of the Society; and discuss any subjects proposed.

ART. IV. Nine members shall be a quorum for all purposes, except the election of members, as herein before provided, and excepting also alterations of the By-Laws, which shall not be made unless fifteen persons are present, nor unless the subject has been discussed, or reported on, at a previous meeting, by a committee appointed for the purpose.

ART. V. It shall be the duty of the President, and in his absence, of the Vice President, to call special meetings of the Society, on the application in writing of the Standing Committee or any five members, and the object of the call shall be stated in the notice.

The time, place and object of the Annual and Special Meetings shall be published in at least three of the newspapers of this State, seven days before the meeting, by the Recording Secretary, or in his absence by the Corresponding Secretary, or in the absence or inability of both, by the President.

ART. II. The President shall preside in all meetings of the Society when present, and when absent, the Vice-President. In absence of both, a temporary President shall be chosen by hand vote.

The President shall be, ex-officio, chairman of the Standing Committee.

THE CORRESPONDING SECRETARY.

The Corresponding Secretary shall carry on the correspondence of the Society not otherwise provided for, and deposit copies of the letters sent and the original letters received in regular files in the library.

THE TREASURER.

The Treasurer shall receive all moneys belonging to the Society, and shall make and keep fair entries in a book to be kept for that purpose, of all moneys and funds of the Society that may come to his hands, and of all receipts and expenditures connected with the same; which accounts shall be open to the inspection of the members; and at every annual meeting shall exhibit in writing to the Society, a statement of his accounts, and of the funds of the Society, and the condition of all the property entrusted to him. He shall pay no moneys except on vote of the Society or upon the order of the Standing Committee. He shall give bond with sufficient sureties in the sum of eight thousand dollars.

A committee of two persons, to be nominated by the chair, shall be appointed at the annual meeting to examine the Treasurer's accounts for the year, and report thereon at the succeeding annual meeting.

THE BIOGRAPHER.

It shall be the duty of the Biographer to request from each resident member an autobiography in brief, also a cabinet photograph portrait, and to report at each annual meeting the necrology of the members for the year.

STANDING COMMITTEE.

ART. I. The Standing Committee shall regulate all the common expenses of the Society, and make the necessary purchases of such articles as may be wanted, and shall have power to draw on the Treasurer to defray the expense.

ART. II. They shall assist the Librarian and Cabinet Keeper when it shall be necessary, in arranging and preserving the books, manuscripts, &c., belonging to the Society.

ART. III. They shall frequently inspect the Records, and inquire whether all the orders of the Society are carried into effect with promptitude and fidelity.

ART. IV. It shall be a part of their duty to inquire for, and take judicious measures, within the means of the Society, to procure books, manuscripts, and articles of curiosity, for the benefit of the institution.

ART. V. They shall prepare such business as may deserve the attention of the Society.

ART. VI. They shall report all nominations of persons for admission as members, and shall, at their discretion, as vacancies occur in the Society, report nominations for resident members to fill the same.

ART. VII. All investments and changes of funds shall be under their direction.

THE LIBRARY AND CABINET.

ART. I. At every annual meeting of the Society, a catalogue of the books, pamphlets, manuscripts and maps shall be laid before the Society by the Librarian, and a catalogue of the curiosities by the Cabinet Keeper.

ART. II. Once every year, the Standing Committee shall report to the Society respecting the state of the Library and Cabinet.

ART. III. No book shall be taken from the Library but with the knowledge of the Librarian, who shall make a record of the same.

A member shall not have more than three books at a time without permission from the Standing Committee.

No member shall retain a book more than eight weeks without leave of the Standing Committee; nor, without the same leave, be permitted, after having it for that period, to return and receive it again, till after an interval of three months.

ART. IV. The Publishing Committee may make use of the Library without restriction.

ART. V. Newspapers and maps may be taken from the Library only by the Publishing Committee.

the Library shall be answerable for any injury or loss of the same, which shall be estimated by the Standing Committee.

ART. VIII. The privilege of using the Library shall be denied to those who are indebted to the Society for fines or assessments, and which are of longer standing than one month, provided they have received due notice of them from the Librarian or Standing Committee.
